What is Creative Growth?

Creative Growth is a division of Creative Tenders focused on working with UK creative and digital agencies and freelancers who want to increase how many tenders they respond to and more importantly win.

If the answer is yes, we can help.

Our Experience

With 15 years experience bidding for and winning work for the creative sector Jill Hudson can support with:

- Streamlining your tender process to speed up submission responses
- Implement new processes for understanding which tenders you should bid for
- Look at how to best present your company and it's services
- Work with your sales team to up-skill in tendering practices and procedures

Who will delivery the training?

Jill Hudson will deliver the training to ensure we have all documents and knowledge to hand.

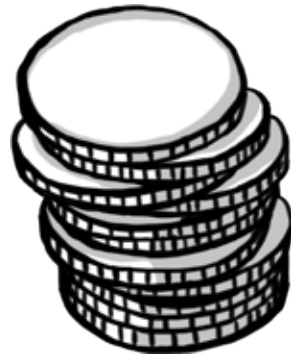

Jill will:

- Evaluate tenders you have recently submitted.
- Guide and structure feedback to ensure you understand where you may have gone wrong when tendering.
- Give you the knowledge needed to be more successful with tendering going forward.

How much does it cost?

£995

A full days training, together with all upfront planning and research starts from just £995 ex VAT.*
